Art. 5 – Exclusions

Candidates are admitted to the selection provisionally. The General Director has the faculty to exclude a candidate at any time in case of lack of the above-mentioned requirements by providing a valid justification.

Applicants will be notified of their exclusion from the selection procedure within 5 days from the exclusion provision.

Art. 6 – Selection Board: evaluation of qualifications, interview, and ranking list

The Selection Board shall be appointed by the OGS General Director and shall be composed of three members, including the scientific Tutor.

The Selection Board may carry out the evaluation procedure with the aid of videoconference tools, ensuring in any case the complete communication security and traceability.

The session is open and closed by the President, who governs its execution and could suspend it in every moment, where necessary. The President has the duty of checking, before the start of the meeting, the participants' identity and assessing the presence of the required conditions of participation. These elements will be specified in the minutes, together with the indication of the technologies used by each member.

The Selection Board shall close the selection procedure within six months from the date of its first meeting. Should the Selection Board fail to respect this term, it shall collectively write a valid justification to the OGS General Director (see art. 11 – D.P.R. 487/1994).

The selection is based on qualifications and interview.

The Selection Board can assign up to 100 points, divided as follows:

- 30 points for the evaluation of the qualifications
- 70 points for the interview.

In order to pass the interview, the candidate should obtain a minimum score of 49/70.

QUALIFICATIONS (max 30 points out of 100)

The Selection Board preliminary adopts the criteria and the parameters to which it intends to apply, with specific reference to the characteristics of the research project.

The evaluating titles are:

- master's Degree final mark and accordance to the subject of the Call and graduation grade;
- postgraduate diplomas and certificates of attendance at postgraduate specialisation courses, both in Italy and abroad, in the field covered by the call;
- performance of activities at public and private subjects with contracts, traineeships, scholarships, assignments, both in Italy and abroad in the field covered by the call;
- possible experience in one of the following fields
 - (a) methodologies of qualitative-quantitative analysis and territorial and socio-environmental analysis;
 - b) support to co-design processes for the development of integrated planning strategies for climate resilience;
 - c) knowledge of methods and tools for the construction of participatory processes and stakeholder engagement.

INTERVIEW (max 70 points out of 100)

The interview may take place by means of videoconference call, ensuring anyway the adoption of technical solutions that guarantee the disclosure and transparency, the participant's identification, and the communication security.

The interview will focus on general themes related to the profile of the present Call, on the past experiences and the possible publications submitted. The interview could be held in English.

For the interview the candidates shall provide a valid identification document.

Candidates who are unable to produce any identification documents or are in possession of identification documents that have expired will not be admitted to the interview.

The candidates who will not be present at the interview, or those who will not be connected in videoconference Call according to the indications given by OGS, should the interview take place this way, will be excluded from the competition.

In order to pass the interview, the candidate should obtain a minimum score of 49/70.

RANKING LIST

After completion of the interviews, the Selection Board prepares a ranking list, with all the final scores obtained by each candidate, in descending order.

Candidates ranking list is drawn up according to the overall votes each candidate received. In the case of candidates with the same score, the preference will be attributed to the younger candidate.

The ranking lists with the indication of the grant winner will be published by the President of the Selection Board on the OGS website <https://www.ogs.it/it/concorsi>.

Such publication effectively constitutes an official notification.

Art. 7 – Ranking list approval and appointment of the grant winner

The General Director, once verified the formal validity of the documents transmitted to the Selection Board, approves the ranking list and appoints the grant winner.

The ranking list shall remain valid for 18 months after the date of approval.

In case of formal renunciation of the grant winner, or if the grant winner does not accept the grant within the prescribed period according to Art. 8 of the present Call, the grant shall be awarded to the next eligible candidate in the ranking list, following the score order, within the limits of the above-mentioned list duration.

Art. 8 – Awarding of the grant

The OGS General Director, in compliance with the current legislation on the matter, awards the research grant to the grant winner.

The grant winner will be duly notified of the result and shall send an official declaration of acceptance of the grant within 15 days after acknowledgement of receipt of the notice. Once obtained the declaration of acceptance from the winner candidate, a contract between the OGS General Director and the grant winner is prepared and signed. This contract states the terms and conditions of the cooperation, together with the research activities to be carried out.

Art. 9 – Implementation of the research activities

The activities of the grant holder are carried out in complete autonomy and with no scheduled working time, within the specific research programme and according to the guidance provided by the scientific Tutor.

The grant holder activities are never considered as dependent employment.

The grant does not entail any social security treatment or can be used for the evaluation of legal and economic careers.

Art. 10 – Obligations of the grantee and evaluation of the research activity

The grant holder must carry out the commitments foreseen by the research programme prepared by the scientific Tutor and under his/her supervision. At the end of the grant, the grant holder shall submit to OGS a final research report that includes the obtained results, accompanied by the evaluation of the scientific Tutor that shall be countersigned by the Director of the Section. Upon formal request of the grant holder, the implemented activities may be submitted to a duly designated Selection Board for evaluation.

All technical, scientific, and administrative data and information gathered by the grant holder during the implementation of the activity shall be considered confidential and therefore the use of such information is not permitted for purposes different than those for which the grant has been awarded.

With regard to the protection of the intellectual property of the results or products obtained on the performance of the activity of the grant, please refer to OGS Rules and Regulations on patents and protection of intellectual property.

Art. 11 – Personal data management

In accordance with Article 13 of the EU General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679 (GDPR), candidates are informed that their personal data, provided by applying to this selection or to this end collected by the National Institute of Oceanography and Applied Geophysics – OGS (from now on, “OGS” or “the Controller”) will be exclusively collected and treated by authorised individuals, Selection Board included, for purposes strictly connected to the selection procedure, with or without the aid of electronic tools, even in case of possible communication to third parties or diffusion (e.g. ranking list publication for transparency purposes).

These treatments by OGS are legitimate as are necessary for the performance of contracts or of pre- contractual measures adopted upon request of the candidate, in compliance with a legal obligation to which OGS is subject, or for its own interest.

According to art. 15 et seq. of the above-mentioned Regulation 2016/679, the candidates have the right of access their personal data, the right of limitation and rectification, as well as the right of opposition and the right to delete their data, for legitimate reasons.

These rights may be exercised against the National Institute of Oceanography and Applied Geophysics – OGS (Data Controller) with head office in Borgo Grotta Gigante 42/c 34010 Sgonico (TS).

In order to exercise the rights recognized by the Regulation 2016/679, or for any information related to the personal data treatment, it is possible to contact the Data Controller at the following e-mail address: privacy@ogs.it. The Data Protection Officer appointed by OGS can be contacted at the following e- mail address: dpo@ogs.it

Art. 12 – Responsible of the Proceedings

In accordance with art. 5 of the Law dated 7/08/1990 no. 241, the Responsible of the Proceedings is Human Resources Manager lawyer Carlo Martone, smartone@ogs.it.

Art. 13 – Accessibility

This Call will be posted on the OGS website, and on the European Commission Internet portal Euraxess.

Art. 14 – Right of access

The right of access to the documents regarding this procedure may be exercised according to the indications of the Law dated 7/08/1990 no. 241 and subsequent amendments. For information on this matter, refer to the OGS Recruitment Office: concorsi@ogs.it.

The requests of access will be published on the OGS website www.ogs.it, in the Job's Opportunities section dedicated to this selection. This publication fulfils the obligation of informing the persons concerned.

Art. 15 – Final Proceedings

Anything not envisaged by the articles of this Call shall be regulated by the OGS “Research Grants Rules and Regulations” approved by the Board of Directors with Resolution n. 8.6.2015 dated 26.06.2015.
