The National Institute of Oceanography and Experimental Geophysics - OGS, to comply with its activities under the Research Project of National Interest (PRIN 2022) ATlantificaTion dRiven by polArsubpolar ConnecTIONS (ATTRACTION - CUP F53D23002190008) in a changing climate: integrating observational evidence, paleo-oceanography and modelling over the last thousand years at the gateway of the Arctic Ocean (Codice 2022CCRN7) and under the Research Project PNRA - National Antarctic Research Program PNRA0000016, DIONE: Dynamic behavior Of the East ANtarctic Ice ShEet in the Sabrina Coast (East Antarctica) Code 102014_A.2_DIONE_PNRA2022_MUR_CNR, announces a public selection for qualifications and interview for the award of no. 1 professionalizing research grant on “Oceanography of the Polar Regions” for the Oceanographic Section of the National Institute of Oceanography and Applied Geophysics - OGS.

The candidate will contribute to the study of oceanographic processes in polar areas, through the acquisition, processing and analysis of mainly physical and biogeochemical data collected and obtained through oceanographic campaigns, autonomous Lagrangian measurement systems (e.g. Argo floats, ocean glider, drifter), fixed oceanographic moorings, and numerical models. The candidate is required to have the ability or predisposition to analyse time series and oceanographic data with software such as MATLAB, Ocean Data View, etc. and knowledge of programming languages and statistical calculations, but also of the office suites (excel, word, power points, etc). The candidate will have the opportunity to participate in research expeditions, both in the Arctic and Antarctic, with embarkations on research vessels for periods of approximately 2 to 6 weeks. Good aptitude for field activities at sea, autonomy in problem solving and good learning ability are required.

SCIENTIFIC DISCIPLINARY SECTOR: GEOS-04/C Oceanography, Meteorology and Climatology
PHYS-05/B Physics of the Earth System, Planets, Space and Climate

According to Article 22, paragraph 1, of Law No. 240/2010, OGS employees with open-ended or fixed-term contracts, tenured personnel in service with the other entities cannot be holders of research grants and entails placement on unpaid leave for the contractor/employee in service with public administrations.

The research fellowship may not be combined with any other fellowships with the exception of those awarded by national or international institutions aimed at integrating the research activity of the grantees with stays abroad.

The research fellowship is compatible neither with the participation in degree courses, master's degrees, fellowship PhD, in Italy or abroad, nor with fixed-term or permanent contracts, except for the placement on leave for the employee serving in Public Administration.

OGS may not pay any additional payments to grantees.

This selection notice is available on the OGS institutional web page at <https://www.ogs.it/it/concorsi> together with all the information, news and notices referred to this Call.

Art. 2 – Duration and salary amount

The fellowship will have a duration of 12 months and may be renewed. On request by the scientific Tutor, the fellowship renewal may be proposed by the Director of the Department/referral structure to the OGS General Director. Even in the case of any possible renewals, the duration of the fellowship cannot exceed six years. The total duration of the fellowships also includes the fellowships implemented in other organizations or universities, with the exception of the time during which the fellowship overlapped a PhD course (not paid) to a maximum duration of the course itself.

The fellowship cannot be awarded to applicants who have already benefited from a fellowship, further renewals included, for a period of six years, with the exclusion of the above-mentioned paragraph.

In the case that the successful applicant has already benefited from fellowships for a period of less than six years, the annual research fellowship and/or its possible renewal shall be granted within the above-mentioned termination.

The gross annual salary of the research professionalizing fellowship, net for charges borne by OGS and including the social security contributions concerning the part borne by the grantee, is equal to € 21,000.00 and shall be paid in monthly instalments.

The amount of the fellowship does not include any possible allowance for missions in Italy and abroad which may be deemed necessary for the implementation of the research activities connected to the fellowship. The mission allowance is determined in proportion to the allowance paid to the OGS staff belonging to the III professional level.

Fiscal and social security regulatory provisions in force are applied to all fellowships.

Art. 3 – Requirements

The requirements for the admission to the public selection are:

- Master's Degree in scientific disciplines obtained in accordance with the current Italian legislation prior to the Ministerial Decree no. 509/99 or Master's Degree within Ministerial Decree no. 270/04 in all assimilated classes pursuant Interministerial Decree dated 9th July 2009 and according to the table annexed to the same Decree, obtained by Italian Universities or degrees issued by Universities abroad;
- Suitable scientific-professional curriculum vitae related to the subject of the competition call;
- Knowledge of instrumentation suitable for oceanographic studies;
- Good knowledge of the English language;
- Basic informatic knowledge;

Candidates who obtained a qualification abroad that has been declared equivalent by the Italian competent educational authorities or validated according to the rules in force (Art. 38 Legislative Decree 165/2001), are admitted to participate in the call. The candidate without such requisite at the date of the application shall submit a detailed documentation concerning his/her education in order to allow the Selection Board to evaluate the application limited to the present call for applicants.

Art. 5 – Exclusions

All exclusions from the competition, for whatever reason they may be envisaged, may be ordered, at any moment of the competition procedure, with a provision from the General Manager on the indication and proposal of the person in charge of the procedure and/or the Examining Commission pursuant to art. 6.

The exclusions will be communicated to the interested parties within 5 days of the adoption of the relevant provision.

Art. 6 – Selection Board

The Selection Board shall be appointed by the OGS General Director and shall be composed of three members, including the scientific Tutor.

The Selection Board may carry out the evaluation procedure with the aid of videoconference tools, ensuring in any case the complete communication security and traceability.

The session is open and closed by the President, who governs its execution and could suspend it in every moment, where necessary. The President has the duty of checking, before the start of the meeting, the participants' identity and assessing the presence of the required conditions of participation. These elements will be specified in the minutes, together with the indication of the technologies used by each member.

The Selection Board shall close the selection procedure within six months from the date of its first meeting. Should the Selection Board fail to respect this term, it shall collectively write a valid justification to the OGS General Director.

Art. 7 Evaluable qualifications, interview, and ranking list

The selection is based on qualifications and interview.

The Selection Board can assign up to 100 points, divided as follows:

- 30 points for the evaluation of the qualifications
- 70 points for the interview.

In order to pass the interview, the candidate should obtain a minimum score of 49/70.

QUALIFICATIONS (max 30 points out of 100)

The Selection Board preliminary adopts the criteria and the parameters to which it intends to apply, with specific reference to the characteristics of the research project.

The evaluating titles are:

- PhD thesis title relevant to the required profile;
- Proven scientific and methodological experience in public and private scientific institutions with contracts, fellowships or assignments reports related to the subject of the competition call;
- Specialization diplomas and post-graduate specialization courses attended both in Italy than abroad;
- Proven contribution to scientific publications and/or technical reports related to the subject of the competition call;
- Having carried out degree theses and/or activities in the field of physical oceanography and biogeochemistry
- Participation in oceanographic cruises on research vessels
- Knowledge of the most common scientific programming languages (e.g., MATLAB, Python, etc.).

In particular, a PhD. title, or an equivalent title obtained abroad, would be considered as an asset for the purpose of awarding the fellowship.

The details on date, time and place will be published at least 15 days prior of their conduct by notice published on the website of OGS <https://www.ogs.it/it/concorsi> .

Such publication effectively constitutes an official notification.

INTERVIEW (max 70 points out of 100)

The interview may take place by means of videoconference call, ensuring anyway the adoption of technical solutions that guarantee the disclosure and transparency, the participant's identification, and the communication security. The Selection Board reserves the right to publish on the institutional website any detailed directions regarding the conduct of the interview well in advance.

The interview will focus on general themes related to the profile of the present Call, on the past experiences and the possible publications submitted. The interview could be held in English.

For the interview the candidates shall present a valid identification document.

The candidates who will not be present at the interview, or those who will not be connected in videoconference Call according to the indications given by OGS, should the interview take place this way, will be excluded from the competition.

OGS

Istituto Nazionale
di Oceanografia
e di Geofisica
Sperimentale

In order to pass the interview, the candidate should obtain a minimum score of 49/70.

After completion of the interviews, the Selection Board prepares a ranking list, with all the final scores obtained by each candidate, in descending order.

Candidates ranking list is drawn up according to the overall votes each candidate received. In the case of candidates with the same score, the preference will be attributed to the younger candidate.

The ranking lists with the indication of the fellowship winner will be published by the President of the Selection Board on the OGS website at the following page: <https://www.ogs.it/it/concorsi> .

Such publication effectively constitutes an official notification.

Art. 8 – Ranking list approval and appointment of the fellowship winner

The OGS General Director, once verified the formal validity of the documents transmitted to the Selection Board, approves the ranking list and appoints the fellowship winner.

The ranking lists shall remain valid for 18 months after the date of approval.

In case of formal renunciation of the winner, or if the winner does not accept the fellowship within the prescribed period according to art. 9 of the present Call, the fellowship shall be awarded to the next eligible candidate in the ranking list.

The fellowships available following renunciation or resolution of the fellowship winner may be awarded to the candidates indicated in the ranking list within the limits of its duration.

Art. 9 – Awarding of the fellowship

The OGS General Director, in compliance with the current legislation on the matter, awards the research fellowship to the fellowship winner. The fellowship winner will be duly notified of the result and shall send an official declaration of acceptance of the fellowship within 15 days after acknowledgement of receipt of the notice. Once obtained the declaration of acceptance from the winner candidate, a contract between the OGS General Director and the fellowship winner is prepared and signed. This contract states the terms and conditions of the cooperation, together with the research activities to be carried out.

Concerning taxation all the regulatory provisions referred to art. 4 of the Law dated August 13 1984 no. 476 are applied to research fellowships and, in terms of social security, the applicable law is referred to art. 2, paragraphs 26 and following, Law no. 335 dated August 1995 and subsequent amendments; for maternity leave matters the applicable law refers to provisions as per Ministerial Decree dated July 12 2007, published on the Official Journal no. 247 dated October 23 2007 and for matters concerning sick leave, art. 1 paragraph 788 of Law no. 296 dated December 27 2006 and subsequent amendments. During the maternity leave, the allowance paid by the Italian Social Security Institute (INPS) with reference to art. 5 of the above-mentioned decree dated July 12, 2007, is integrated by OGS up to the total amount of the research fellowship.

Art. 10 – Implementation of the research activities

The activities of the fellowship holder are carried out in complete autonomy and with no scheduled working time, within the specific research programme and according to the guidance provided by the scientific tutor.

The scientific tutor must coordinate the activities of the fellowship holder together with those of other participants in the programme, by providing all the necessary indications for the implementation of the activity object of the collaboration.

The activity of the fellowship holder is never considered a status of employment.

Art. 11 – Fellowship obligations

The fellowship holder must carry out the commitments envisaged by the research programme prepared by the scientific tutor and under his/her supervision. At the end of the fellowship the holder must submit to OGS a final research report that includes the obtained results. The report must be approved by the tutor.

All technical, scientific, and administrative data and information gathered by the fellowship holder during the implementation of the activity shall be considered confidential, therefore, it is not allowed to use such information for purposes different than those for which the fellowship has been awarded.

Concerning the protection of the intellectual property of the results or products obtained on the performance of the activity of the fellowship please refer to OGS regulations on patents and protection of intellectual property.

Art. 12 – Personal data management

In accordance with Article 13 of the EU General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679 (GDPR), candidates are informed that their personal data, provided by applying to this selection or to this end collected by the National Institute of Oceanography and Applied Geophysics – OGS (from now on, “OGS” or “the Controller”) will be exclusively collected and treated by authorised individuals, Selection Board included, for purposes strictly connected to the selection procedure, with or without the aid of electronic tools, even in case of possible communication to third parties or diffusion (e.g. ranking list publication for transparency purposes).

These treatments by OGS are legitimate as are necessary for the performance of contracts or of pre- contractual measures adopted upon request of the candidate, in compliance with a legal obligation to which OGS is subject, or for its own interest.

According to art. 15 et seq. of the above-mentioned Regulation 2016/679, the candidates have the right of access their personal data, the right of limitation and rectification, as well as the right of opposition and the right to delete their data, for legitimate reasons.

These rights may be exercised against the National Institute of Oceanography and Applied Geophysics – OGS (Data Controller) with head office in Borgo Grotta Gigante 42/c 34010 Sgonico (TS).

In order to exercise the rights recognized by the Regulation 2016/679, or for any information related to the personal data treatment, it is possible to contact the Data Controller at the following e-mail address: privacy@ogs.it. The Data Protection Officer appointed by OGS can be contacted at the following e- mail address: dpo@ogs.it
